Kia Ora and Welcome to the Air New Zealand Academy of Learning

Whether you are a new or returning student studying in Auckland or Christchurch, we hope that your time with us will be rewarding and enjoyable.

The Air New Zealand Academy of Learning (AOL) exists to drive excellence in the essential areas of modern aviation.

Whilst studying with us you will have the opportunity to give feedback on your course and participate on the Student Council. The Student Council and management meet once a month to discuss Air New Zealand Academy of Learning operations and facilities, the courses and the aviation industry in general.

The aviation industry is dynamic and challenging and offers a rewarding career for those who are prepared to put in the effort to learn and develop their skills. Potential employers will be seeking people that not only have the required knowledge and skills, but who also have the right attitude. Character attributes such as honesty, reliability, accountability, and integrity are all necessary pre-requisites sought by potential employers. In conjunction with the assessment of your academic progress, these attributes will be monitored during your time with us to provide guidance on whether you have what it takes to be part of aviation's exciting future.

We wish you all the best and trust you enjoy your experience!

Innovative Programmes

Our programmes are designed to be challenging, fun and innovative, including both theory and practical hands-on learning.

Air New Zealand Academy of Learning Instructors

All our instructors have aviation engineering industry knowledge and great teaching skills. They are highly focused on assisting you to get results and achieve your goals.

Tuition and Training

Air NZ AOL programmes are based on unit standards or modules. A unit standard or module is awarded when a defined level of competency is reached. Competency is assessed via practical and theory assessments. The conditions regarding assessments and the opportunity for re-sits are explained in the “Assessment/Exam Re-Sits” section. You will also be asked to participate in evaluations of your programme.

Personal Protective Equipment

You are required to buy two pairs of Air New Zealand branded overalls during your induction course. These are embroidered with the Academy of Learning - School of Engineering logo as well as your name. Sizing and payment of overalls will be arranged during your induction. The cost is outlined on your enrolment form. You are also required to purchase NZ Standards Approved clear safety glasses, Class-5 ear defenders and steel capped safety shoes.

We have negotiated a discount price for these items with NZ Safety Blackwoods. You will have been provided with the relevant discount forms prior to your programme start date. Please ensure that you bring your safety shoes on your first day*. If you already have your own safety equipment, please bring the items along on your first day and we will ensure that they meet our safety requirements.

 International Students – are not expected to have these items before the programme start date. We will arrange for purchase of these items during your orientation week.*

Recognition of Prior Achievement

If you have already achieved competence in any of the unit standards included in your programme you may not need to complete the assessments. Please present your Record of Achievement to Student Support. Course Attendance is still required.

Responsibility for Learning

We believe that all our students have the potential to succeed, and we want to help by providing quality training and support. We require a commitment from you that you will dedicate your time and energy into learning new skills.

We expect you to be responsible for your own learning, and while during class time you will have the support of your instructor, you will be expected to complete tasks independently both in and outside of class time. Home-study is an integral part of the course content.

Achieving Your NZQA Qualification

To achieve your NZQA qualification, you must meet the following criteria:

Certificate in Aeronautical Engineering (Pre-Employment Skills) Level 3

Achieve 66 compulsory credits in Core Aeronautical Engineering along with 64 credits from the recommended Aeronautical Engineering standards.

- Have a minimum attendance of 80% for each course.
- Successfully complete all assessments with a minimum pass mark of 75%

Assessments

Assessment and exams are an important measure of your progress, and these will happen regularly. You have the right to know when you will be assessed (or tested), how you will be assessed and what is expected of you during the assessment. If you need to re-sit an assessment, you will be told when this will happen, certainly after you have had time to practice or learn more. Should you disagree with an assessment result whilst on the programme you can discuss this with your instructor, and then the Facilitation Leader. Finally, if you are still unhappy with the outcome of those discussions you can appeal in writing to the Training Manager. Honesty and integrity in the completion of assessments and tests is expected.

Assessment/Exam Policy and Procedures

At the beginning of every class your instructor will give you information about the assessment procedures. Your instructor will advise you how your assessment results will be made available to you.

On courses that are unit standards based, you will be assessed against the unit standards and learning outcomes throughout each programme. Each unit standard is made up of outcomes and performance criteria and to gain credit for the unit standard you must achieve all the performance criteria in that unit standard. Please be aware that the performance criteria of most-unit standards will be assessed over multiple courses making up the overall programme. This is to ensure the training can be delivered in a logical manner and provide opportunities to revisit topics to aid learning.

A re-sit will be required for any examination, written assessment or practical assessment that you do not pass. Where you achieve less than 50% in an assessment you may not be able to re-sit that assessment without further training. This will be discussed with you.

If you do not pass a particular assessment, you will be forwarded an electronic interim result notice via email, so that you can plan your re-assessment. Formal notification of course results will be issued within 10 working days.

You may not be eligible to sit the course exam or assessment if 80% attendance is not achieved. If your absence is likely to result in a failure, the examination will be deferred. The decision for deferral will be made by your instructor, Facilitation Leader(s) and Student Support. A course of action will be recommended for you, this may be self-study prior to sitting the assessment, some individual tuition, or a re-course prior to taking the assessment.

It is possible that you may be unable to sit your original exam/assessment due to illness, accident, bereavement or other exceptional and unavoidable circumstances. In such cases, please liaise with your instructor 24 hours before the scheduled time of the examination, or as soon as practicable once the circumstance has arisen. You will be required to provide evidence to support your appeal to defer.

Provided the above conditions are met and agreed upon by the Facilitation Leader, a suitable time will be allotted to sit the exam/assessment at no additional cost. This is indicated as DNS (Did Not Sit) rather than as a fail.

Outside of the conditions stated above, you are to sit the examination at the scheduled time.

Assessment/Exam Re-sits

Re-sit sessions are scheduled weekly (every Wednesday from 3.40pm). To arrange a re-sit, please follow the booking instructions outlined in your electronic Interim Result Notice. You need to ensure that your payment is made prior to 5pm on the Thursday before your re-sit to ensure sufficient processing time.

There is an administration cost of up to $60.00 for each re-sit. This is payable at the time of booking the re-sit (Refer to: Financial Information/Other Payments). No refund may be given, but a resit may be deferred at no charge if approved by a Facilitation Leader on production of a doctor's note, or if you have experienced a bereavement, accident or other trauma. Where the deferral is foreseeable, notice must be given 24 hours before exam sitting.

If you choose to defer for any other reason, this will incur an additional charge equal to the published resit fee. The same applies if you simply fail to attend the resit without explanation.

Retraining/Re-coursing

After 3 attempts at an examination (1 initial and 2 re-sits) you will be required to retrain before further attempts can be made. The Facilitation Leader will arrange this. This may be done during semester breaks or after the programme has been completed. Retraining or re-coursing may be required if you miss a significant portion of the course due to absence. Your instructor will discuss the options with you. The timing of the retraining is dependent on the availability of the course and instructor. An appropriate fee may be charged.

Self-directed learning hours

As a part of each programme, students are required to complete a set amount of self-directed learning (homework) hours in addition to what they do with instructors in class.

For the New Zealand Certificate in Aeronautical Engineering (Pre-Employment Skills) (Level 3) – the expectation is up to 10 hours per week self-directed learning

Credits and Certification

Air New Zealand Academy of Learning processes credit reporting to NZQA. All results for internal and NZQA exams and assessments are managed through Training Administration.

Air New Zealand Academy of Learning will issue Certificates when the student completes all required parts of the programme to the required levels. These awards will be made either directly to the students, or at the Graduation Ceremony.

Your Feedback is Important to Us

Your feedback on both your programme and the Air New Zealand Academy of Learning environment is valued and will help us to make continual improvements. You are invited to give us your feedback at the completion of each course when you will be asked to complete an online evaluation. Please raise any issues with your instructor at any time, or if you prefer to discuss any concerns privately, contact your Facilitation Leader or Student Support.

Attendance

Attendance is compulsory. A high level of attendance, (minimum of 90%) throughout the programme is required to award the qualification. Aeronautical Engineering is a very specialised and technical industry, therefore the knowledge required to achieve this qualification is dependent on your presence.

Student attendance and punctuality are recorded daily.

Punctuality

On Time Performance is crucial within the Aviation Industry. OTP is a measure of the ability of transport services to be on time. Attendance in the workplace is treated as a key employability factor therefore attendance and punctuality for class is treated with the same importance – employers always ask for this information when requesting references.

Absence

If you are late or unable to attend class for any reason, you have a responsibility to notify us immediately (before 8am).

Please Text or phone Student Support on 027 264 2100 to report absence or lateness. Also ensure that you provide your name, class and reason for the non-attendance/lateness.

Notifying your absence is both basic workplace discipline and common courtesy.

- If you need to attend an appointment during class time, inform your tutor prior to the date of appointment.
- If you are absent because of sickness, you must make contact before your normal start time. Should you be away for more than two days, you will need to provide a medical certificate.
- If you are absent without contact; Student Support will be obliged to phone or visit you personally to establish your safety. If we cannot contact you, we will contact your next of kin.
- If you are absent from the programme for more than four consecutive days without notifying Air New Zealand Academy of Learning or without good reason for failing to do so, you may be dismissed.
- If your overall attendance drops below 90% for the programme, you may be dismissed.
- Please note - that as a Private Tertiary Establishment we are obliged to notify non-attendance to government agencies such as Study Link and the Tertiary Education Commission for domestic students, plus Immigration NZ regarding international students.

Punctuality and Attendance Issues

If you are continually late to class, you may be refused entry. Latecomers are not admitted to examinations and assessments.

Failure to meet the 80% course attendance criteria will result in a failure for that course. Before a course pass can be awarded, you will be required to provide an explanation (in writing) addressed to the Training Manager. In the case of illness, a medical certificate should be attached.

Discipline Process for Poor Attendance

As advised earlier it is expected that students maintain a programme attendance rate of 90% or above. If you fail to meet these requirements, we will speak with you to discuss the issue. A maximum of 2 verbal meetings/warnings will be held before a final written warning prior to dismissal from the course or programme.

Student Progress and Feedback

Student progress is monitored regularly, and electronic result summaries provided to you via e-mail each month. These will assist you in tracking your assessment and test results. Individual performance reviews will be conducted by Student Support and an Instructor during the practical elements of your programme. The performance review will cover your progress to date and cover competencies like attitude, punctuality and attendance, completion of tasks and practical skills.

Work Experience

Work experience opportunities may be provided during semester breaks. While on work experience or on-job training you must work and behave in a manner which will bring credit to you as well as the Air New Zealand Academy of Learning.

Links with Industry

We pride ourselves on working closely with industry to develop programmes that meet the needs of the aviation industry. During your programme you will be exposed to the career options available to you. On occasions you will also have a great opportunity to present yourself to future employers. Your instructors will keep you informed. Guest speakers from other areas of industry are invited to make presentations during your programme if appropriate. Familiarisation visits and work experience to different areas may be included where they add value - subject to availability.

Programme Completion

When your programme finishes, you must complete an end of programme survey and an exit form. We will also require you to hand in your access card, locker key and any other item loaned to you during your time on the programme.

Graduation

A graduation event is held at the end of the academic year, with events scheduled in both Auckland and Christchurch. Graduation is a time to celebrate your achievements with other members of your class, family, friends, and the staff.

Students who have successfully met the criteria for gaining the NZQA certificates are eligible to participate in graduation.

Prizes are awarded to those students who have excelled on their programme, whether via academic and/or practical skills or alternatively by demonstrated exceptional personal qualities.

Student Support Services

Student Support

Our Christchurch learning base has full-time Student Support available during business hours Monday- Friday, and at all other times for emergencies only. Student Support will visit the Auckland learning base regularly and hold a student meeting each month. Whilst not based in Auckland, Student Support is always available for help and advice via phone, text or email.

Student Support is available to assist you with questions relating to accommodation, transport etc. and will also assist domestic students with questions relating to student loans and allowances.

If there are any issues affecting your study, please feel free to discuss them confidentially with Student Support.

If you have a known learning difficulty, you need to discuss the details at the beginning of your training with Student Support. This is so we can ensure you are not disadvantaged during your training.

Security and Student ID

Security is of paramount importance in the aviation industry. To maintain a secure environment for everyone's safety, all persons present at Air New Zealand Academy of Learning are required to display a current Air New Zealand or Student ID card, or a visitor pass.

You will be provided with a Student ID at the start of the programme – a photo is taken during induction and an ID provided soon afterwards. This ID must be worn at all times whilst on the premises – if you forget your ID at any time, please sign in as a visitor at reception for the day. The cost of your ID and any replacement is $17.25.

Please always help us maintain a secure environment by being aware of your personal security and reporting any unusual or suspicious behaviour or persons without an ID to your instructor or Student Support

Student Council

Student Council representatives are elected at the start of each programme. Meetings are scheduled monthly. The student council is made up of a representative from each student class, plus members of the Air New Zealand Academy of Learning management team. Items for the agenda should be forwarded to Student Support.

Student Study Space

We are pleased to be able to offer our students spaces to study quietly on-campus. The student study spaces are open Monday to Friday from 0700-1600 for self-study.

Student Notice Board

The student notice boards are located in the student cafeteria. Please feel free to place appropriate notices on the boards. Please remove notices once their relevance has expired. Management of Air New Zealand Academy of Learning reserve the right to remove inappropriate messages or notices without consultation.

Students are always expected to wear their student ID cards when visiting the main hangar and having purchased food need to return to the learning base. You are not permitted to stay and eat in the main hangar.

Showers/Changing Facilities

Showers and changing facilities are available on-site.

Accommodation

There are several options available to students for accommodation including homestay, flatting or boarding. A number of websites provide information on what is available – see links in Community Information. The best option for you personally will depend on your familiarity with the area and your means of transport. The student notice board can be used for advertising. For your own safety, we recommend that you do not visit prospective accommodation sites on your own. Please contact Student Support if you require assistance in this area.

Bus Services

Information on bus services can be obtained from AT in Auckland on (09) 366 6400 or <https://at.govt.nz/>. In Christchurch, information can be obtained from Metro info on (03) 366 8855 or www.metroinfo.co.nz.

Health Services

It is recommended that you research where the most convenient GP/medical centre is in advance (even if you do not think you will need one), preferably one close to your accommodation. However, if you require a doctor or dentist, Student Support will be able to refer you to a nearby practitioner. You can contact a health professional 24 hours a day on Healthline – 0800 611 116.

If you become aware of a hazard that does not have appropriate controls in place, please advise your Instructor and report the hazard so that we can take steps to eliminate, isolate or minimise it.

Our buildings are fitted with fire alarms throughout and we have a practised evacuation plan.

In the unlikely event of a fire or other emergency requiring Air New Zealand Academy of Learning to be evacuated, the evacuation alarm will sound, and you should immediately leave the building by the closest emergency exit and proceed to the assembly area where you should congregate together as a class. Please take care not to block access to the building required by emergency vehicles.

The exits and assembly area are clearly marked on the maps displayed in all the classrooms, and in this handbook. Please follow directions given by Fire Wardens and your instructor.

If you require special assistance in the event of an evacuation, please make this clear to your instructor at the start of your course, the disabled person's register held at reception will need to be updated with your details. Financial Information

Tuition Fees

All New Zealand citizens and New Zealand Residents (who have held permanent residency for 3 years or more) are entitled to receive a funding subsidy from the Ministry of Education. From the subsidy Air New Zealand Academy of Learning makes a deduction to student fees. The balance is used to assist in resourcing the programmes. The cost applicable to you for your chosen programme will be confirmed on the offer letter and the invoice issued (no invoice is issued for Fees Free Students).

Programme costs include:

- GST (Government Goods and Service Tax)
- NZQA registration and Unit Standard reporting
- All tuition and student notes

Payment of Fees

Students are required to have organised the fee payment at the start of their programme either via StudyLink or self-funding. If you are eligible for Fees Free, you will be able to claim your fees back from IRD upon graduation.

All other students' fees are to be paid according to the terms of your contract or your sponsor's contract.

Student Fee Protection - Public Trust Account

The Public Trust operates an independent 'trust account' for Air New Zealand Academy of Learning students to protect their student fees in accordance with statutory requirements under the Education and Training Act 2020 (Section 356), and New Zealand Qualification Authority registration requirements. This trust account ensures that sufficient monies are available at all times to refund the 'unexpired' portion of student fees in the unlikely event that Air New Zealand Academy of Learning has to cease delivery of a programme due to financial or other external reasons. The trust account is controlled by the Public Trust who operate the trust for the benefit of all students concerned. The level of protection is limited to the amount of fees paid directly by the student and excludes government funding amounts; programme related costs or sums paid other than programme fees.

Payment direct to the Public Trust bank:

Bank: Bank of New Zealand
A/C Name: Air New Zealand Limited
Account: 02-0536-0305865-01
Swift: BKNZNZ22 PT

Please ensure your name is entered as the bank description for bank payments and that you quote the reference number (advised on the invoice) you are paying.

Withdrawals and Refund of Fees - Domestic Students

If for any reason you feel that you need to withdraw from your programme of study, a discussion with your Facilitation Leader and Student Support is recommended. The cancellation fees are below:

DATE OF WITHDRAWAL	ADMINISTRATION CHARGES	REFUND DUE	ACADEMIC RESULT
Prior to start of course	Nil	All fees refunded	No result recorded
Before the end of the 8th calendar day from the start of your course	$500.00 or 10% of the fees paid, whichever is the least amount	All fees refunded, less the Administration charge	No result recorded
9 or more calendar days from the start of course	Nil	Nil	Results of course & units completed will be recorded

Formal withdrawal from a course of study is required to be made in writing and addressed to the Training Manager - Maintenance Training Organisation. The effective date of withdrawal will be the date on which Air New Zealand Academy of Learning receives the written advice. Please read the withdrawal information above. Your withdrawal will mean that you are no longer a full-time student. Any refund is required to be repaid to StudyLink (Student Loans) first.

If you withdraw from all courses of study after 9 calendar days from the start date, you will be required to attend a withdrawal/exit interview. At that time, you will need to return all Air New Zealand Academy of Learning materials on loan or hire, including your student ID, locker key, any relevant class texts, workbooks or equipment that you have not paid for.

Work and Income New Zealand (WINZ)

Are you receiving a benefit from WINZ?

If you are receiving a benefit from WINZ, it may affect your eligibility for a student loan or allowance. You will need to inform WINZ when you begin your studies.

If you are married and receiving a student allowance, you may be entitled to a special benefit and/or an accommodation benefit from WINZ.

Student Loans and Allowances - Domestic Students

Student loans can be used to help finance your studies. All student loans and allowances are managed by StudyLink. An application can be obtained by telephoning 0800 88 99 00 or on-line at www.studylink.govt.nz.

If you have any queries regarding your loan or in an event of WINZ requesting asking additional information, please check with Student Support who tracks the progress of your loan.

It is to your advantage to apply for a loan and/or allowance as soon as possible to ensure they are available to you when you start the course. You can do this before you have been accepted into the course.

Study Fees Free

If this is your first time studying at tertiary level, you may be eligible for final year Fees-Free.

To get Fees Free for your final year of study or training in 2025 you must:

- complete a qualification in a programme that's eligible for Fees Free, and
- meet the residency criteria, and
- meet the prior study and training criteria, and
- not have already used Fees Free.

When you enrol, you'll need to organise payment of your fees. You may wish to apply for a student loan to help you cover this.

You don't need to do anything else until you complete your qualification. The myIR portal will be available from early 2026 for you to confirm your Fees Free eligibility and claim your fees from IRD.

Find out more on this government website:

www.feesfree.govt.nz

Once your student loan has been approved, you may also apply for a loan to cover course related costs as detailed in your enrolment form.

Please ensure that all questions relating to student loans, allowances and course related costs are directed to Student Support.

The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021

Introduction

When learners enrol to study in New Zealand, tertiary education providers have an important responsibility to ensure that those students are well informed, safe and properly cared for.

To support this, the New Zealand government has developed The Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021.

The NZQA is a government organisation which manages the quality of New Zealand qualifications, and also acts as the Administrator of the Code of Practice.

What is the Code?

The Code of Practice prescribes the required outcomes education providers and their agents need to deliver for all international and domestic learners. It clearly outlines the full legal requirements that education providers enrolling tertiary learners must abide by.

The Code of Practice does not apply to concerns about academic standards.

Who does the Code apply to?

The Code applies to all tertiary education providers in New Zealand.

The Code is mandatory to these providers and must be signed by them.

Who is an "International Learner"?

An "international learner" is a person studying in New Zealand who is not a New Zealand citizen or resident. A learner who is a citizen or resident of New Zealand is referred to as a "Domestic Learner".

How can I get a copy of the Code?

The code is available online in English and Te Reo Māori from the Ministry of Education website

What can I do if I have a complaint?

When you enrol for tertiary study in New Zealand, you can expect to receive a high standard of education, and to feel safe and well cared for. If you have a complaint, it is important that you go through the steps outlined in this handbook under Policies and Procedures/General Complaints and Grievance Procedure.

Household Plan

Making a plan before an emergency will help you work out what to do when a disaster happens. The plan should be made with all members in your household, and you should let family and close friends know about your plan so they know how to contact you if you need to leave your accommodation.

Things to cover in your household plan include:

- What you will each do in the event of a disaster – declare yourself as “Safe” via any/all of the following:
 - Facebook
 - Microsoft Teams
 - Text 027 264 2100 (May still work even if data networks are unavailable)
- How and Where you will meet up during and after a disaster
- What local radio stations to tune into for civil defence information during an event.
 - National Radio. AKL 101.4 FM/756 AM CHC 101.7 FM/675 AM
 - Newstalk ZB. AKL 89.4 FM/1080 AM CHC 100.1 FM/1098 AM

If you don't have a radio in your house but you have a car with a radio, tune in to the relevant station!

The Household Emergency Plan template at <https://getready.govt.nz> is a good place to start:

Emergency Lockdown Procedure

In the event of a localised major incident (terrorism/civil disturbance) the Air NZ Academy of Learning has a planned procedure to activate a “lockdown”.

Please ensure you follow the advice and direction of Air NZ staff in these situations.
